STUDIA IURIDICA NO 110 (2025)

Wojciech Załuski – Alf Ross on Freedom and Responsibility: A Critical Appraisal 7
Paweł A Boike – Misguided Copying of Anglo-American Patterns? Intentionalism as a Reasonable Proposal for a Contemporary Continental Judge 20
Dominik Świątkowski – Towards a Harmonised Framework for Copyright Enforcement in the Digital Single Market: The Interplay between Directive 2019/790 and Directive 2004/48/EC 39
Rajmund Molski – The Ugly Sister or the Cinderella: Remarks on the New De Minimis Aid Regime 57
Maria Supera-Markowska – Taxes in the EU and Their Harmonisation in the Context of the Reform of the EU's Own Resources System 73
Katarzyna Kwaśniewska – Liability for Medical Error Involving Artificial Intelligence in Diagnosis – A Regulatory Gap in Polish Medical Law 89
Łukasz Górski – Against Explainable Artificial Intelligence in Law: Why Justifiable AI Matters. A Credit Scoring Example 107
Kamil Kapica – Free and Fair Elections in the Member States – The Limits of European Union Competences and the Consequences Thereof 128
María Alejandra Vanney – The Global Regulation of Surrogacy: Comparative Legal Developments and the Case for Abolition 145
Zuzanna Kulińska-Kępa – Guardians between Orders: Government Agents in the Era of EU–ECHR Integration 167
Agnieszka Szpak, Remigiusz Falkowski – Treatment of Russian Prisoners of War in the Hands of Ukraine 184
Anastasiia Vorobiova – Self-Defending Democracy and Russian Disinformation: Commentary on the ECTHR Rodina and Borisova v Latvia Judgment 206